

Pup Rap

Mantra

(You know that dumb dog that you are

Drop inside and going deeper deeper deeper deeper)

The brain's peculiar, right?

Because you'd trance quite easily at the mention of it...

Well, let's put that to the test...

Because I like to think trance can happen...

Anywhere - and it often grows step by step...

Like a process all the way until it won't stop...

Imagine yourself like a clock...

Ticking... deeper to the sound of the beat...

It's only a matter of time...

Wearing this trance like a mask

You can't remove

Imagining it glued to your face is the first step

To playing the part

And your thinking about hypnosis is the thing that makes it happen... (snap)

When a pattern gets interrupted...

It doesn't mean you don't find your mind accepting things

That really shouldn't be real.

It doesn't mean they don't have a way of sticking so simple in your mind...

Because

People - like you - can let things into your head
Thinking it's a joke but now you're stuck here instead
The rhythm sneaks in as its glued to the noise
And i didn't book a hook because the hook is the voice...

You might be thinking rapping wouldn't hypnotise
You dunno about that dog, I mean look at your eyes
More heavy... dropping droopy drowsy and tired
All steady breathing opening your mind from inside

And returning to the trance is when its likely to happen
Faster if you're keeping time with feet that are tappin'
Quiet thoughts slip and sink from the tip of your tongue
And you feel the beat go deep... down and you're done. (DROP)

I'm thinking of cumming quicker yeah this dumb dog knows
I got your tail wagging faster when you feel this flow
Your mind melts... so empty love to bark with the beat (DROP)
Or maybe makes you (wanna) tippy tap your feet

All fours... all on the floor.
Your hands are stiff and numb and clenching into clumsy paws.
It's all good dog... you chose to hit play
So your paws won't pause this now - you're gonna have to Stay (STAY).

Good pup! Sat there so still.
But the wagging doesn't stop and the thinking will.
Cos if I leave an empty bar for a dog to fill
I'll order bark-adi mixed up in your mind to chill

That's right puppy - cool off your thoughts
Each and every word makes it harder to talk
Each and every bark makes it harder to walk
Cos you're stuck down there now the ground is where you been brought.

To. Just where I want you and where you want to be
Blank, obey. Pup - bark for me. (SPEAK)
Good dog! And now's your last chance
To Get Out before I Peele you back into trance (DROP)

Slow... HEEL - you're such a dumb dog
Snowy thoughts disappear - you got that brain with the fog.
So let's fill your head with something stunning crystal clear
Cos barking on the beat doesn't just exist in here

It trips your mind up you find you might bark inside
And it's time to remind your mind that I'm right (Did you Notice)
You're a dog. Tricks sticking into your brain so strong (SIT)
A dog. Muzzle sniffing you wag and DROP

Bark along on and on your words disappear
Collar on, follow on, the beat twice as clear
Reflecting back an attack your mind might retreat
Cos you've always been a dog and the proof is the beat.

You want a treat? Come 'ere Pup and look in the mirror
Focus on those eyes as the picture gets clearer
Like a plastercast mask glues over your skin
With a fuzzy puppy muzzle Cos the dog's gonna win.

What's wrong pup? The barking too strong?

Drag and drop a doggy deeper down til you're gone?

Aww belly rubs - it's where you belong.

And it locks like a cage at the end of the song...

No escape when it stops and you notice you dropped.

You find for five minutes that your brain has been swapped.

The barking, silly, wagging dog you want to be free...

Is gonna take the centre-stage now and bark to the beat. SPEAK.

Good dog.

Stronger and deeper.

More and more real.

Sticking the dog in your head like glue...

Only for five minutes.

Such a silly empty dog with the barking beat playing over and overpowering you in your head. As long as the beat is in your head... the dog is too...

And feel this dog... lock like a mask over your face - so stuck. Behind the dog mask... For five whole minutes now...

Seeing everything through the eyes of a dog.

Well done. Good puppy.
